

The believers shared what they had with joy.

Ananias and Sapphira talked about the money.

Ananias brought some money to the apostles.

Peter asked why they had not told the truth.

Everyone learned to be honest before God.