

Mordecai told Esther her people were in danger.

Esther asked God for courage to help her people.

Esther went to the king to ask for help.

Esther shared the truth at the banquet.

The king helped Esther, and her people were saved.