

The people walked through the dry desert and grew hungry.

Moses prayed, and God heard the people's need.

In the morning, sweet bread-like manna covered the ground.

Each family gathered just enough manna for today.

The people ate and thanked God for His care.