

Jesus showed a tiny mustard seed to the people.

He said the kingdom of God starts very small.

The small seed grew into a little plant.

It kept growing until it was large and strong.

Birds found a home in its branches.