

Adam and Eve were the first people God created. They lived happily in a beautiful garden called Eden. God asked them to trust Him and follow one important rule. When they made a wrong choice, they learned about consequences, but God still loved them and cared for them always.

Lesson: Choices matter, and God still loves us when we make mistakes.