

At twelve years old, Jesus remains in the temple, discussing Scripture with teachers. His wisdom amazes those listening. When His parents find Him, He explains He must be about His Father's work.

Lesson: Grow in understanding and devotion to God.