

John sees a vision of a renewed creation where God dwells with His people. Sorrow, pain, and death are gone, and all things are made new forever.

Lesson: God promises eternal restoration and hope.