

Paul's Shipwreck

During a violent storm at sea, Paul reassures the crew that God has promised safety. Though the ship runs aground and breaks apart, every person survives just as Paul said.

Lesson: Trust God's promises in life's storms.