

Paul explains that the Holy Spirit produces love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control in believers. These qualities reflect God's transforming presence within a person's life and guide relationships with others.

Lesson: Let the Spirit shape your character each day.