

A servant forgiven of a huge debt refuses to forgive someone who owes him little. The king rebukes him for his lack of mercy.

Lesson: Forgive others as generously as God forgives you.