

Jesus tells of one man who builds his house on solid rock and another who builds on sand. When storms come, only the house built on rock remains standing.

Lesson: Build your life on obedience to God's Word.