

God provides for our needs.

God provides food for His people in the wilderness.