

Baby Moses' mother made a safe basket for him.

She placed Moses in the basket by the river.

His sister watched from the tall river reeds.

A princess found the basket and opened it.

The princess cared for Moses, and he was safe.