

David and Jonathan became dear friends.

Jonathan shared his robe and gifts with David.

They promised to always be loyal friends.

Jonathan warned David when danger was near.

They parted with love, trust, and sadness.