

King David asked for a count of the people.

Joab and his men went out to count the people.

David felt sorry and asked God for mercy.

God sent a warning, and David listened.

David gave an offering, and God showed mercy.