

Job lived happily with his family and many animals.

News came that Job had lost his animals and servants.

Then Job learned his house was gone too.

Job was very sad, but he still prayed to God.

Job trusted God, and God stayed with him.