

The people walked in the hot desert and felt thirsty.

They asked Moses for water, because they were thirsty.

Moses asked God to help His people.

God told Moses to speak to the rock.

Water came from the rock, and everyone drank happily.