

Paul sailed on a ship across the sea.

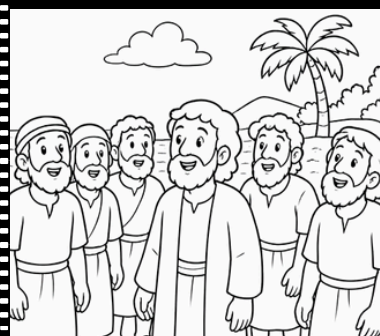

A storm came, and the ship rocked hard.

The ship broke apart near the shore.

Everyone held on and reached the land.

God kept Paul and all the people safe.