

Jesus watched people bring gifts to the temple.

Some rich people gave many coins.

A poor widow came with just two small coins.

She gave all she had, with a loving heart.

Jesus said her gift was the most precious.